

Biography

Clement Stanley Russell Sr. – 2018

Clement Stanley Russell born in Nassau on February 24, 1952 to Stanley Hilton Russell and Florence Ophelia Russell. He was educated in Nassau at Quarry Mission Primary, Oakes Field Secondary School, Western Senior High School.

He attended Trade school presently known as BTVI , and obtained a certification as a Business Machine Repair Technician. He also completed a training course in Salesmanship.

He have been employed with City Market, Dean's Lumber Company, Business System Ltd; and then opened and operated his own business for about five years called 'Lower Cost Goods Services Ltd, a Maintenance and Painting contracting company. He went into the Taxi business, for ten years as a Ambassador for the country. He completed the Bahamas Host Training Course on two occasions during that time.

After moving to Eleuthera , he continued driving his work in the taxi business for a while, before working as a Security Officer before retiring to make himself more available to his music ministry.

Clement is composer and psalmist, and have completed a 12- original songs CD.

Clement is a Senior Associate of S. Ali McIntosh & Associates Leadership Consultant, as an advisor for Wisdom, Focus and Perspective.

Philosophy

'Most important qualification is being led by the Spirit of our heavenly father works in and through me.'