

BIOGRAPHY

W. Patricia Morley

Director of Civil Society Bahamas

Her children call her a Blessing; Her Community says she is God sent. However, her birth name is Wendy Patricia Farrington and affectionately known as “Pat”. She is married to Frederick F. Morley. She has dedicated her life to God and her family. Mrs. Wendy Patricia Morley advocates in championing the Rights of Women and Children throughout the Bahamas and the entire Region.

Mrs. Morley’s sojourn in the area of Civics spans over forty (40) years. She recently completed courses as a caregiver and specialized care for persons with Alzheimer’s and Dementia. All who knew her were astonished at the way in which she dealt with children and older persons. From a tender age of seven (7) on the beautiful Island of Exuma, she has been receiving people into her family’s home from tourist/visitors and persons who was in need. Tourists from all over the world remember her kindheartedness and sincerity and many have kept in touched up to this day.

Her love for people has no discrimination. She is trained in the areas of Family Planning, Early Learning and Childcare Development and Parenting both locally and throughout the Caribbean and the United Kingdom. W. Patricia is also a HIV / AIDS Counselor.

Pat's work in the areas of Youth Development and Community Service are unmatched having rendered her expertise for the Simpson Penn and Willimae Pratt Centers for Boys and Girls. She served on the Juvenile Panel for many years. She presently acts as adviser to: Humane Trafficking, WIND Project, the Urban Renewal Council Nassau Village and the President of "Jewels" the seniors of Nassau Village Urban Community.

A staunch Human Rights advocate Mrs. Morley has partnered with various civic women's organizations Locally, Regionally, and Internationally. Her work is worthy of great accolades throughout the Caribbean Region and United Kingdom. She has partnered with organizations to create more opportunities and constitutional reform for women.

Pat is a former Member of the Advisory Council for the Government Minister responsible for Women's Affairs in the Bahamas. Mrs. Morley represented the Bahamas in consultative capacity at the United Nations on the Commission of the Status of Women and Girls for many years and has received numerous awards most notably:

"Lifetime of Service Award / Global Peacekeeper Award"

**United Nations ** "Woman of Integrity Award"

**National Gospel Excellence Association of the Bahamas ****

Mrs. Morley is the President and one of the founding members of The National Organization of Women's Associations of the Bahamas and a proud member of the Nassau Village Urban Renewal Advisory Board. She is a true Nation Builder and Role Model.

Wendy Patricia Morley is passionate in placing the accomplishments of Bahamian women accurately in the annals of time for future generations. She sees nothing too small or too great that she cannot accomplish. Her challenge to all women is

"Join Together to Achieve the Future We Want for All Woman"